

Eucalypt: a tanka journal

The first Australian journal devoted to this ancient poetry genre from Japan, Eucalypt showcases contemporary tanka poetry written in English.

Eucalypt is a print journal on silk paper. It contains poems only. There are two issues a year, in May and in November.

An e-newsletter is emailed to subscribers.

For articles and reviews, please see the web-site

www.eucalypt.info

Submissions close on 31 March and 30 September.

Poets may submit up to six tanka but only two poems by each poet will be accepted per issue.

A statement that your poems are 'original, unpublished in print or on social media, and not under consideration elsewhere' must be included. There is no submission fee.

Email submissions and subscriptions to editor.eucalypt@gmail.com or mail to:

Julie Thorndyke, 3 Forest Knoll, Castle Hill, 2154 NSW Australia.

Subscriptions for two issues per annum, including postage, are:

Within Australia: AUD $30

Japan and New Zealand: AUD $40

USA, UK, Canada & Europe: AUD $50

Cheques payable to Julie Thorndyke.

PayPal to editor.eucalypt@gmail.com

Email for bank transfer details if required.

Thank you for your support of Eucalypt: a tanka journal!

✂-----

Name:

Postal address:

Postcode:

Country:

Email address for e-newsletter:

Please find enclosed $ for issues of Eucalypt.

Tick issues required:

<input type="checkbox"/> Issue 22 May 2017	<input type="checkbox"/> Issue 23 November 2017
<input type="checkbox"/> Issue 24 May 2018	<input type="checkbox"/> Issue 25 November 2018

